ARRIVAL and CHECK-IN PROCEDURES for the 2016 Festivale of Endangered Equines & SANA

LIABILITY WAIVERS: Anyone handling horses MUST have a signed Festivale Liability Waiver (FLW) on file. If you send one in with your entry, it's already on file. If not, please see Nancy Phillips in the Equus Survival Trust booth in the Eastern Complex Reel Arena on the concourse

All of the below are in the Eastern Complex Reel Arena

STABLE Check-In: EST Booth

BEFORE unloading, proceed to the Eastern Complex Reel Arena concourse to the Equus Survival Trust booth. Stall assignments will be given by EST staff member Nancy Phillips. Have your current Coggins and, if not from Virginia, have a current Health Certificate for Stable Check-in. Once you have your stall #'s you can unload and get your horses settled in before checking in as an Exhibitor or Volunteer.

VOLUNTEER Check-In: EST Booth

All volunteers for ATAA and SANA must first check-in with Nancy Phillips at the Equus Survival Trust booth in the Eastern Complex Reel Arena on the concourse. Nancy will give you your Volunteer Packets which will include your job description, area to staff & schedule. ATAA volunteers must then proceed to the ATAA show office in the Reel for further instructions.

EXHIBITOR Check-In: SANA Show Office

ATAA and SANA Exhibitors must check in at the SANA show office in the Eastern Complex Reel Arena EXTERIOR entrance. Katie Pinney, the SANA show secretary will give you your exhibitor #'s, update any class changes, and take post entries and your Exhibitor Packets.
