

SANA West Rare Breed Show

Show Regulations

- All entries must have current vaccinations and be in good health.
- All out-of-state horses must have a current Coggins test (1 year) and Health Certificate (30 days) for entry into California.
- All exhibitors, show and clinic participants, volunteers and anyone working with horses must sign a Liability Waiver
- STABLING - NO horses are to be unloaded until checked-in and assigned stabling. Horses may only be shown out of their trailer if the daily Haul-in Fee has been paid and they are checked in with event staff. Murrieta Equestrian Center and Horse Expo Inc. rules must be followed for Haul-in's. No horses may stable overnight in trailers.
- Pre-Payment accepted via PayPal or Check made out to Akhal-Teke Association of America. NO credit cards. Sorry! Cash and Checks and PayPal via your phone only are accepted at the event.
- All exhibitors and their helpers, volunteers, event participants, and volunteer staff must follow the Murrieta Equestrian Center facility rules and the Horse Expo and SANA West Rare Breeds Show rules and instructions AND have an Event Liability Wavier on file with the Event Barn Manager.
- Every breed will be assigned a Team Captain (first point of contact) and a list of those names will be posted at the SANA West Rare Breed Show office located in the Rare Breed Pavilion.

General SANA Show Rules and Regulations

- Any rare breed as listed on the EST rare breed list may compete in open classes and clinics: Jumping, Dressage, Obstacles In-Hand or Ridden (classes and clinics), and In-Hand Presentation clinic.
- Except where noted, entries will not be judged on grooming, equipment, tack or clothing. Appropriate turnout, gear, and clothing are encouraged but not required.
- Exhibitors must wear suitable, safe close-toe footwear for all classes. Proper helmets or appropriate headwear for the class or discipline shown in are required for all ridden classes. All classes require safe, proper fitting tack and equipment.

- The Announcer will make gate calls to the stabling and grounds area via the facilities speakers as time allows. Exhibitors are responsible for keeping track of what class is in the ring and when their own class should be ringside or in the warm-up area. Exhibitors are responsible for letting the In-Gate Keeper know they are present.
- Once the class enters the ring, unless an exhibitor has notified the Ring Steward and been a granted additional gate time by the judge, there is a one-minute hold on the gate for missing exhibitors to make the class before judging starts, after which the gate will be closed for entries and judging begins.
- With the exception of multiple entries by a handler or rider in the same class, no horses will be allowed entry to a class once the judging begins. If an exhibitor has multiple entries, it is their responsibility to alert the Ring Steward so suitable timing arrangements can be approved.
- Exhibitors may show more than one entry in the same class. Notification to the Show Secretary no less than one hour prior to the class is required. A reasonable amount of time (as determined by the judge) to allow a handler or rider time for his/her multiple entry switch is permissible if the additional entry is in the warm-up, ready for the class.
- Horses will enter the ring in exhibitor # order at a walk.
- While every effort will be made by SANA staff to alert Exhibitors to pending classes and/or changes, it is the Exhibitor's responsibility to be aware of class or schedule changes and be timely to the warm-up, on-deck, and in the ring at the appropriate time.
- The Event Coordinator, SANA Show management, Ring Stewards and Judges have the right to refuse an exhibitor entry into any class if they deem that entry unsafe for the exhibitor, horse other exhibitors or horses, or spectators and they may also dismiss any entry from the ring for similar reasons.
- Cruelty or rough handling of horses will not be allowed at the SANA West Rare Breeds Show event. A horse and exhibitor may be excused from the ring, show, or event for lack of control, cruelty, rough handling, or un-sportsmanlike conduct.
- SANA reserves the right to combine or cancel any class. Any exhibitor whose class is canceled may put in request for a class entry refund at the SANA West Rare Breeds Show Office.
