2016 Rare Breeds Show and ATAA Conference, June 14th, 15th and 16th, Lexington, VA

The 2016 Rare Breeds Show and ATAA Conference planning is well underway. Our Show committee is discussing which classes to have with Victoria Tollman, the Equus Survival Trust director and show manager.

We are also working on class sponsorships, and show sponsorships. We will need your help to put on this show! You may donate via the ATAA website for the overall show or you may pick a class to sponsor. We have our judge! Dr. Molly Nicodemus, of the University of Mississippi will be our Teke judge. Molly has been working on an Akhal-

Teke Gait Study for the past few years, along with teaching and judging at the collegiate level and gave an excellent presentation at the 2014 ATAA Conference in California. An article about the AT Gait Study is on the ATAA website at: <http://www.akhal-teke.org/akhal-teke-gait-study.html>

We have been working on the class list for the show and have a tentative list done.

We will be taking online entries most likely in March. Watch the website for info.

Meet Your Members!

Thank you to everyone that has sent me info! It's great fun getting to know our members.

Ruth Anne Heilgeist, Virginia

Q: Where do you live? A: In central Virginia

Q: How did you hear about Akhal-Teke horses?
A: While horse shopping online among various endurance breeder's websites, I noticed a yearling for sale on Kerry Redente's site for Cedar Ridge Ranch Arabians that was half Akhal-Teke (out of Kinor). I always knew of the breed but never researched it until I saw this filly. After buying her, I have since learned a lot more from reading and from knowledgeable people such as Allegra Steck and Phil Case.

Q: What is your experience with horses?
A: From bareback riding as a child to training racehorses to chauffeuring my daughter on the A and Eventing circuits to breeding warmbloods and now endurance riding, I've had a relationship with horses my entire life.

Newsflash!!

Make sure you renew your membership by March 31st to be listed in the Membership Directory.

Rare Breeds show info in upcoming newsletters and on the ATAA website!

Q: How long have you been interested in Tekes or Teke crosses?

A: Since 2012

Q: How did you hear about the ATAA?
A: From an Internet search.

Q: Do you own, lease or ride a Teke or Teke cross? If so, what do you do with him/her?
A: I have CRR Kahlua Gold (pictured), which I

Spotlight on Member Volunteers

We've had several wonderful volunteers lately and we would like to say thank you to them! We would like the ATAA to be a friendly and active organization and we run by volunteers! This issue we'd like to recognize:

Tim Floyd, Idaho, Tim is paying for a half page ATAA ad in the upcoming February issue of Endurance News, the magazine of the American Endurance Ride Conference organization. This magazine is seen by endurance riders all over North America and beyond. The ad was developed by the BOD.

Keira Wickliffe, Kentucky, Keira volunteered to do up some artwork we had hoped to use for the Endurance News ad. It's a lovely piece but we decided to go with a clear background. We're thinking of other ways to use it!

Caroline Dudkowski, Illinois, has been doing a fantastic job on the Rare Breeds Show planning. She is not only a valued member of the Show committee, but she has checked out the possible hotels for us, found a jump course designer and designed the Show survey!

Of course, thanks go out to the Board of Directors and the rest of the Rare Breeds show committee for all your hard work and dedication over the years. We can't keep growing without you!

Notice of Registration Fee Adjustments: As the ATAA needs more income and we make no money on registration fees at $40, new prices will be in effect on August 1st, 2015. New prices will be: $40 for foals in the year they are born. $40 for VNIK registered horses. $60 for all others. Non-members add $10 to each unless they join at the time of registration. This isn't a very large increase and we felt that most of the backlog of horses has been registered.

HorseFlicks DVD- 1st one. ATAA member Shirley Schulz donated 3 boxes of the first HorseFlicks DVDs to the ATAA! That is about 1500 DVDs! There has been at least 2 reprintings of this DVD and we should have them for sale on the ATAA website soon. Thank you Shirley!

2016 ATAA Conference will be at the Rare Breeds Show in June. We will have our General Membership Meeting, the Silent Auction (as part of the SANA Silent Auction) and give out our ATAA awards. We need someone to run the Silent Auction, so if you'd like to give that a try, contact one of your Board members and volunteer!

New Facebook page: Member Gretta Teets has started a Facebook page entitled: Akhal-Teke Sporthorses. Post stories and photos of your Akhal-Teke sporthorses. Check it out!

purchased from Kerry Redente, who is starting her endurance career as a 5 year old. Then there is the lovely Silverhill Sosna, a filly I purchased from Betsy Wandler and my Thoroughbred mare, Ms Speedy Cowgirl (aka Leila), is in foal to Allegra Steck's stallion, Alp. I am also leasing one of Allegra's mares with a breeding to one of her stallions. So I'll be sufficiently foaled for a while.

CRR Kahlua Gold

Q: What do you like the most about them?

A: I love (and sometimes hate) how smart and loyal they are. If I scold one of the dogs when Lua is nearby, she tries to discipline them too. And once the round pen training routine is done once, both she and Sosna get impatient if I don't add a new challenge because neither one likes a lot repetition once they've learned something.

Q: What are your goals for the future with your Teke or Teke cross?

A: All of my Tekes will be trained in endurance and informal team penning as chasing cattle is a nice break from miles and miles of trotting and cantering.

Jennifer Newman, Tennessee

Stan and I live in Knoxville, Tennessee.

I think I first came across the Akhal-Teke on the internet, as I do not think that they are in any of my old breed books. Also a long-time friend has had them for years, and I have loved seeing photos of them.

I have been riding my whole life and got my first horse, an Appaloosa, when I was twelve. We rode 4H, went to the county fair every year, and I also rode on my high school equestrian team.

For the last few years I have stalked every website that had any photos and information about the breed. I was happy to see that there was a breed club in the US, and had planned to join as a friend before I purchased Stanley.

Stan is my first Teke, and he is a 2013 purebred, bay gelding (Salam x Aishet). And I have also purchased his full sister born June 9th of 2015, who I have yet to meet.

Hopefully I will get to trail ride, and compete in endurance with my two someday. Right now I am still doing groundwork with Stan, and hope to begin riding him this year.

So far I do not have very much experience with the breed, but of course what first drew me to the breed was their gorgeous physique. My experience with Stanley has been that they are a sweet, smart and curious breed.

That about sums it up so far!

Jennifer and Stanley (aka Sabyr)

For Sale: MAZALY aka MAIZIE

$12,500.00 all serious offers will be considered
'07 15.00hh Akhal-Teke/ Hanoverian mare.

Great temperament, sweet personality, easy to handle on the ground, been ridden barefoot. Classy jumper, clean with her knees and her hooves over fences. Has competed clean up to 3'6" and has schooled up to 3'9". Maizie is the GridPro master! She keeps her head and her cool through grids and combinations, she knows how to get the job done! Maizie would make a wonderful Pony Club horse or an Amateur Show Jumper. Maizie was backed right after her 4th birthday and we have been under a professional trainer for the three and half years that I have been riding Maizie. Maizie does leg yields, shoulder in and haunches in, we are currently working on collection and lengthening in both the trot and the canter. Maizie has been introduced to water, ditches, up banks and down banks, but would recommend additional schooling if looking to event. Maizie's strength like so many of her siblings is in the show jumping arena! For more information, pictures, videos or to schedule a time to come meet Maizie please email me, Catrina at godscavalry@gmail.com! Maizie is currently being boarded at a training facility in Hood River, Oregon.

Jessica Drake, Tennessee

Q: Where do you live?

A: I live in Maryville, TN and run an online equestrian gift boutique for art and home decor for horse lovers called The Painting Pony.

<http://www.ThePaintingPony.com>

Q: How did you hear about Akhal-Teke horses?

A: From seeing them in books as a kid! I then looked into them more as an adult in college and loved everything I found out about them.

Q: What is your experience with horses?

A: I grew up in central FL in a very large horsey area and enjoyed being at one of the premier A-rated hunter show barns. I never had a horse growing up but I worked as my barn's working student throughout my high school years and learned a ton about the industry in the process. I also rode on the IHSA while in college and competed at the IHSA nationals after qualifying individually my senior year and placed 9th in the nation for my division. My first horse (whom I still own) is an Arab mix that I purchased in my early twenties out of someone's backyard and trained completely on my own. I took him to college with me when I moved to TN from FL and then eventually taught him how to paint (hence the name of my business, The Painting Pony).

Q: How long have you been interested in Tekes?

A: I am not sure how to answer this. Pretty much ever since I saw a shiny horse in a breed book as a kid. Then I realized that there were some in the USA and it was actually possible to own one someday! I guess I just assumed at first when I was a kid and first read about them in books, that they were only located in some far off mystical place that I would never see... of course I suppose one could say that WAS actually the case before they were imported here but by the time I was born, they had already landed on US soil - I just wasn't aware of it. I can't remember when exactly that was so I am unable to give a specific length of time.

Q: How did you hear about the ATAA?

A: Facebook

Q: Do you own, lease or ride a Teke or Teke cross? If so, what do you do with him/her?

A: Yes, I own a coming 7yr old stallion. We showed on the local hunter circuit for my area the year before last, but due to various reasons, we took a break from competition this past year. He is young still and has a lot of learning left to do but I plan on getting out more in the future. I enjoy taking him places and talking to people who ask about his breed because they can tell he is not any breeds they have seen before, even though he is a rather plain bay color. The Teke in him still shows well.

Q: What do you like the most about them?

A: I love their work ethic and willing attitude to try their heart out for their person. I love how bonded they become and of course the shiny coat doesn't hurt either! I love the something different about them from other horses. And of course I love the way they move!

Q: What are your goals for the future with your Teke?

A: Just to be able to enjoy him as much as I possibly can and share the breed with anyone I encounter and show them all how awesome Tekes are! I would love to compete more if I had an unlimited budget but to be able to enjoy my horse is the most important thing to me.

Jessica and Gardian.

Madeline Lucroy, Indiana

Q: Where do you live?

A: I live in Lebanon Indiana.

Q: How did you hear about Akhal-Teke horses?

A: I actually stumbled across them by accident. I remember reading about the shiny slender horses in books but never really thought about them much. I got involved in Eventing about four years ago and my trainer Eron just happened to be a breeder!

Q: What is your experience with horses?

A: I have been riding for about thirteen years, I have been a 4-H member for four of those years and a pony clubber for five. I have competed in Dressage, Eventing, and hunter under saddle. I am a working student for Eron Owens of Greystone Equestrian Center and I have been a groom at countless shows.

Q: How long have you been interested in Tekes?

A: For the last few years after getting to know Eron Owens.

Q: How did you hear about the ATAA?

A: Through my trainer Eron Owens.

Q: Do you own, lease or ride a Teke or Teke cross? If so, what do you do with him/her?

A: I own an eight year old gelding named Kye. We do Eventing (Beginner/Novice) and Dressage (Training/First Level).

Q: What do you like the most about them?

A: I adore the mindset of my gelding, he is one of the most workmanlike horses I have ever had the pleasure of riding. Even on crazy hot or cold days he's willing and constantly thinking. That coupled with athletic ability to spare makes for a super partner.

Q: What are your goals for the future with your Teke or Teke cross?

A: I plan to continue to move up the levels of Eventing with my Teke. I am very optimistic for a move up in our upcoming season together.

Madeline and Kye

Metman X Aishet, purebred 2012 Akhal-Teke buckskin stallion, lovely gaits and a kind and willing disposition. Started under saddle and beginning his endurance career in 2016.

2016 Rare Breeds Festivale

June 14, 15th and 16th will see many rare breeds of horses come together at the Virginia Horse Park in Lexington, VA. There will be a day of Akhal-Teke and Akhal-Teke sporthorse classes, along with classes for all the attending breeds. The ATAA will be bringing in a judge for our classes and also having the 2016 ATAA General Membership Meeting at the same time. We will be looking for volunteers to work at the show, class sponsors, show sponsors and more. All Tekes and Teke sporthorses are welcome, ATAA registered or not. Check out the ATAA website for more details!

You want to bring your horse!

Yes! The more horses that come the better. There will be national advertising for the event and we hope to get a large turnout. There will be ribbons and prizes in each class, many of which will be donated by the class sponsors. Classes are listed on pages 2 and 3.

Donate

We can't do this without your generous donations! Donate to help sponsor the entire show or sponsor a specific class. We estimate that this show will cost us around $6000 to put on. Please help us show off our lovely horses!

Silent Auction

We will have our ATAA Silent Auction at the same time the Festivale Silent Auction is going on. More attendees mean more bidders! Donate items by contacting a Board member.

Volunteer

If you would like to volunteer, contact a Board member or the ATAA secretary, who will direct you to the right place.

ATAA Annual Conference

Our 2016 Annual Conference will be during the Rare Breeds Show! We will have our Meet and Greet with the entire Rare Breeds Group on Monday, June 13th. Our Annual Membership Meeting will take place on Tuesday, June 14th. The Silent Auction and Awards will be on Wednesday June 15th.

Incentive Awards for 2015

This was the first year for our Incentive Awards, thank you to everyone that participated! The recipients split the pot of $350. We know this won't make anyone rich, it is a way for us to thank everyone that is competing!

Incentive Award Recipients announced at the AERC Convention in February in order of mileage:

Jas Shearer-McMahon and MV Patrickhan- 305 endurance miles - $105

Tim Floyd and JBK Akula 130 total combined miles - $52.50

Jim Rawski and JBK Andyn – 100 endurance miles - $52.50

Amanda Humphreys and Resilience – 100 endurance miles - $35

Cathy Leddy and Galen- 30 LD miles - $17.50

Connie Rawski and JC Zymone – 30 LD miles - $17.50

Incentive Fund Recipients in Eventing;

Susan Presson riding Sensational Scooby at 2 recognized Horse Trials - $35

Stephanie Caston riding Hendrix at 2 recognized Horse Trials- $35

Make sure that you and your horse are eligible for 2016's Incentive Awards which will be bigger and better than 2015's!

Incentive Awards Program 2016

The incentive program will only be available for people competing in recognized events (we have been discussing this and look forward to comments from our members in regard to schooling and or open shows) If you have comments, please send them to Catrina, email address below.

To participate:

- 1) Must be a member in good standing with the ATAA
- 2) Horse competing must be registered with the ATAA either as a pure or part bred.
- 3) Send in 2 or more pictures from the event (must be 375kb or bigger) (if you placed please send a picture with your ribbon and/or prize)
- 4) Sign a release that the ATAA may post photos and results to our website and use photos in promotions for the ATAA
- 5) Email the link to the results page for the event

At the end of the year the ATAA will send you a check, so the more you compete the larger your share of the "jackpot" will be. The amount you receive will be divided out of the set amount in the awards fund and therefore will depend on how many people participate in the incentive program. The incentive program does not depend on you placing or earning points, it is completely about competing in recognized events in all disciplines and sending in the above listed information to the association.

Contact Catrina Quantrell for more information and send your results to her at: godscavalry@gmail.com
